“Be careful that you don’t practice your religion in front of people to draw their attention. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 6:1-8; CEB

“Whenever you give to the poor, don’t blow your trumpet as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets so that they may get praise from people. I assure you, that’s the only reward they’ll get.

Matthew 6:1-8; CEB

But when you give to the poor, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing so that you may give to the poor in secret. Your Father who sees what you do in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:1-8; CEB

“When you pray, don’t be like hypocrites. They love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners so that people will see them. I assure you, that’s the only reward they’ll get.

Matthew 6:1-8; CEB

But when you pray, go to your room, shut the door, and pray to your Father who is present in that secret place. Your Father who sees what you do in secret will reward you.

Matthew 6:1-8; CEB

“When you pray, don’t pour out a flood of empty words, as the Gentiles do. They think that by saying many words they’ll be heard. Don’t be like them, because your Father knows what you need before you ask.”

Matthew 6:1-8; CEB

Avrete mai visto un albero che non a malincuore si volta a C. impossibile che le foglie non siano qualcheduno qualche cosa che, in ogni caso,
non sono altro che un albero.

Lavai, cantando, i panni alle sorgenti boschive, e fui Nausicaa gioconda che mentre lava specchiasi nell'onda

*“One does these things,
and then that’s that”*

"Everyone in their life has their own particular way of expressing life's purpose – the lawyer their eloquence, the painter their palette, and the person of letters their pen from which the quick words of their story flow. I have my bicycle."
