“Now when the Son of Man comes in his majesty and all his angels are with him, he will sit on his majestic throne. All the nations will be gathered in front of him.

Matthew 25:31-40; CEB

He will separate them from each other, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the sheep on his right side. But the goats he will put on his left.

Matthew 25:31-40; CEB

“Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who will receive good things from my Father. Inherit the kingdom that was prepared for you before the world began.

Matthew 25:31-40; CEB

I was hungry and you gave me food to eat. I was thirsty and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me. I was naked and you gave me clothes to wear. I was sick and you took care of me. I was in prison and you visited me.’

Matthew 25:31-40; CEB

“Then those who are righteous will reply to him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? When did we see you as a stranger and welcome you, or naked and give you clothes to wear? When did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?’

Matthew 25:31-40; CEB

“Then the king will reply to them, ‘I assure you that when you have done it for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you have done it for me.’

Matthew 25:31-40; CEB

"It is enough for me to know we are all loved, forgiven, and accepted as we are. Our Creator also provided the spirit in each person to guide us if we choose. For all of this we should be grateful. I believe the Christian faith is motivated by gratitude, which we can repay with ethical actions to others."

“Being a part of the growth of the congregation has been a part of my own growth and understanding of the Spirit’s love for all human beings…From the beginning, Binkley has stood against the prevailing culture. This church began 40 years ago as a congregation committed to Civil Rights and determined to make a Christ-like difference in a racially segregated world…Regardless of the economic status, race, age, political affiliation, national origin, or sexual orientation, all are welcome in this place.”

“We have lost a man who cannot be replaced…His greatest gift was his unique ability to teach what it takes to become a good man. That was easy for him to do because he was a great man himself. All of his players benefited greatly from his basketball teachings, but even more from his ability to help mold men of integrity, honor and purpose. Those teachings, specifically, will live forever in those he touched.” - Mike Krzyzewski
