FROM IDOLATRY

ANDREW ROOT

The central graphic is a teal-colored square with a textured background. At the top, the title "Baal and the gods of More" is written in a white, gothic-style font. Below the title is a circular emblem containing a black silhouette of a bull standing on a crescent moon. A grid of numbers is overlaid on the bull's body. Below the emblem are several horizontal bars of varying lengths, resembling a staircase or a series of steps. The text "RESCUING CHURCH GROWTH FROM IDOLATRY" is written in white, sans-serif font across these bars. At the bottom of the square, the author's name "ANDREW ROOT" is written in white, sans-serif font.

“Everything that appears as a ‘limit’ — incapacity, illness, old age, suffering, vulnerability — tends to be seen primarily as a defect to be corrected, rather than as a reality through which our humanity matures and opens itself to relationship. And yet we must remember that humanity flourishes not despite limitations, but often through them.”

-Pope Leo XIV, Magnifica Humanitas
